LA VOIX DE L'AVIATION D'AFFAIRES CANADIENNE

Hon. Anita Anand
President of the Treasury Board and Minister of Transport
330 Sparks Street Ottawa
Ontario, K1A 0N5

Re: Congratulations on behalf of the Canadian Business Aviation Association

Dear Minister Anand,

On behalf of the Canadian Business Aviation Association (CBAA), I would like to extend our heartfelt congratulations to you on your new role as Minister of Transport. As you step into this important role at the helm of the implementation of the federal government's transport policy objectives, we extend our sincerest well-wishes.

As you may know, CBAA has had a long-standing relationship with Transport Canada, and we are thrilled at the prospect of continuing this partnership with you in your new position.

The CBAA, recognized as the voice for business aviation in Canada, has consistently expanded its role in protecting and promoting the interests of the Canadian business aviation community since its inception. Our industry is a significant economic contributor, generating $17.9 billion annually. With approximately 400 member companies and organizations encompassing operators, management entities, and suppliers, the CBAA provides a unified and representative voice for the entirety of the business aviation sector.

As we strive to ensure the ongoing success of our business aviation sector and the creation of well-paying, highly skilled jobs, we are eager to collaborate closely with you and your department. We are looking forward to discussing your priorities and working together to advance them.

We are eager to understand your goals and work together to achieve them. We look forward to the opportunity to meet with you at your earliest convenience to discuss your priorities and how the CBAA can help support them.

Best regards,

Anthony Norejko
President and CEO
